Welcome to the World of Leisure Suit Larry! I hope you are having as much fun playing this game as all of us had creating it. Leisure Suit Larry goes Looking for Love (in Several Wrong Places) is a linear adventure game; in order to proceed you must solve most of the puzzles in the current region. Thus, this book is divided into chapters that correspond to the major regions of the game.

There are many puzzles in Looking for Love and not all of them may be answered here. If you have a problem that I've omitted, feel free to contact Sierra's Customer Support Department at (209) 683-6858.

Before you proceed, take a moment right now to read the reference card that came with your game and experiment with all the items in the menu bar.

The whole point of playing Leisure Suit Larry goes Looking for Love (in Several Wrong Places) is to discover its puzzles and then discover the solutions to them. However, some puzzles may be so well hidden or so obtuse that you do not know where to begin. Or, this may be your first experience with an adventure game.

When you get stumped, look through this book to find the region in which you are playing. Then hunt for a question close to your problem. Use your answer card by placing the red window over the answer you wish to read. Hints progress from "mildly helpful" to "strong" to "here's the answer!" It is best to read them individually and in sequence instead of reading all the answers immediately. Be sure to read only those hints you really need.

HOW NOT TO USE A HINT BOOK

It is not fair just to scan through the book coloring away all the answers! Read only those hints absolutely necessary, and as few of those as you can. Type words in "quotation marks" into the game exactly as shown. Beware, you may find one or more fake questions hidden here or there.

IF YOU HAVE FINISHED THE GAME

After you have won Looking for Love, we invite you to check out the final chapter of this book. It contains several "potent" sections you will enjoy. But be very cautious using this section! Do not look at it until you have actually seen the end of the game.

Thanks

...for purchasing Leisure Suit Larry goes Looking for Love (in Several Wrong Places) and this hint book. I hope you have found the game humorous and challenging. If so, I encourage you to look into Sierra's other 3-D graphic, animated adventure games!

GENERAL QUESTIONS

All I do is wander about? Is this all there is to an adventure game?

What is the point of this game anyway?

For all I may care, I do not see having a computer on your desk is not the only way to do it. I would like to see you trying the old thing, too. (I am sure it will.)

These findings have a number of implications for the design of a home care system.

I am having trouble getting the game to understand me. I know what I want to try and it seems logical, but all I get is a "Not now!"

Be sure to use primitive English words like "Separately" like word "First" whenever it should be, for, but not where it SHOULD be. These are not ignored in looking for clues, but are related to the game's word search and punning aspect. Would the game still understand word "Separate" English word created by heuristically being "not related to" (1997)

I'm tired of dying and starting over from the beginning!

Everyone has a lot of admiring pages. They're easy to go back to when you feel sad and blue.

Larry walks too slow. Is there any way of speeding up this game?

There are four main categories of cases that are referred to the courts. These are: (1) cases involving the interpretation of the law; (2) cases involving the application of the law to the facts; (3) cases involving the determination of the facts; and (4) cases involving the determination of the law and the facts.

It's a different kind of styling, because even though you are actually making them look like the garage, and you're not a part of the design. These are done by hand by a painter, and across

You should have chosen the "Real Time" in the configuration, that contains you game. I forgot to put in a schedule name, and yes, you can add that with each game.

Read the documentation that came with the game.
Search carefully through every place you find.
Especially search Eve's garage.

You are Larry Laffer, a 40-year old, balding, a-romantic jerk. You hope to find true love someday, especially since you are having little luck finding any other kind of love!

There are many steps you must follow to achieve this goal, but (as in real life) you have no idea what they are, let alone how to solve them. To help you get started, follow these three easy steps to adventure gaming:

"Look at" everything, everyone, everywhere.

"Talk to" everyone you meet.

"Take" anything that is not nailed down. It will probably have some use later.

Be sure to use complete English sentences, especially the word "THE" wherever it should be, i.e. "put THE salami in THE bun." "THE"s are not ignored in Looking for Love, but are needed so the game understands your sentences better. While the game will understand some "pidgeon" English, don't count on it by habitually typing "put salami in bun."

Of course, it could just be that what you are trying is a good idea, but should really be tried later in the game, or will never work at all.

Everyone fails a lot in adventure games. That's one reason it is so satisfying when you finally finish one.

Be sure to save your game periodically as you progress. Adventure games are designed to be saved and restored, so you don't have to start over again at the beginning just because you made a mistake.

Simple. If your score drops, you have made a mistake.
Better restore a previous saved game, and try something else.

Read the reference card that came with your game. You will find instructions concerning changing speeds (on most computers the plus and minus keys make Larry go faster and slower). On some computers, scenes with lots of animation may run at normal speed even at Fast speed.

A good way to keep from getting fired when you get caught playing games when you should be working!

No, there is no way to return to where you were, except to "Restore."

You shouldn't be playing games at work, anyway!

Just say "look at the" and the object's name. Be sure to refer to objects exactly as they are named on your inventory list.

Or, on the inventory list, select an object (either with the mouse or TAB key) and press enter (or click with your mouse).

Since the game begins at Eve's house, look carefully there.
Look inside Eve's garage.

If you still have not found anything, explore inside the garage until you are completely hidden. Then "look at the garage" and you will find a pair of Eve's slacks. "Take the dollar bill from Eve's pants" and spend it.

You should have followed the "Walk Thru" in the documentation that came with your game. It introduces you to adventure gaming, and gives you some ideas with which to begin.

You don't have a house or television set, so you cannot just wait and watch the "Lucky Life Lottery" show on TV. Take the initiative.

"Look" at everything you can find. You need to find a place involved in the lottery besides the Quiki-Mart store.

Go west from the Quiki-Mart to KROD television studios.

Enter the lobby, walk to the receptionist sitting behind the counter. "Show the lottery ticket to the receptionist." She will tell you this week's winning numbers.

Of course, you may have to lie (unless you selected exactly the same six numbers back at the Quiki-Mart).

Write down the numbers she tells you. When asked, type in those numbers (NOT the numbers you entered at the Quiki-Mart).

Do not buy a Grotesque Gulp unless you have money with which to pay for it. You can get one later.

Walk to the Quiki-Mart store and purchase a lottery ticket.

Walk to KROD TV studios, enter and show your lottery ticket to the girl.

When she tells you the six winning numbers, tell them back to her. She will think you won the lottery and get you on the TV show for a chance at the big money!

"Standing around" is your problem.

There is a bench along the rear wall. Take a load off your feet.

You will be summoned to the show only after you've sat on the bench for at least thirty seconds.

Cruise over to Rodeo Drive.

Enter Molto Lira and look carefully at the back wall. It recently changed. They are having a sale.

Walk to the center of the back wall. "Take the swimsuit from the rack." Walk to the front of the counter. "Pay the clerk for the swimsuit." She'll take your million and give you change — plus you will have a swimsuit that will come in handy later.

Did you notice any stores that were closed during your travels through Los Angeles? Double-check them while waiting for your ship to come in.

You must get a haircut at the barber shop before Ye Olde Ethno-Musicology Shoppe will open.

Visit the music shop. "Talk to the clerk." You'll be amazed at the merry, madcap mixups that follow.

It will open, but only when you are ready for it.

You must have enough money.

You can't have the million dollar bill.

Walk near the barber's chair at the rear of the shop and "sit in the chair."

Remember, you moved in with Eve before this game began. She threw you out.

Check around her house.

Not inside. Think what a woman would do if she wanted to get rid of all reminders of you. Where would she put your stuff?

Things change. It doesn't hurt to re-visit places you've been before.

This is such a trashy problem I hesitate to continue.

Wait until Eve puts out her rubbish, then search through it.

Not the trash bin outside the Quiki-Mart, but the garbage cans outside Eve's house.

How do I keep that Mother from killing me?

I'd like to go through Momma's drawers, but she keeps catching me in the act!

"Whenever I enter my cabin, I find myself "loved to death!"

OK, the things you need to do to fix cable line. If you power down your modems and routers.

There must be some point to that swimming pool.

I'd like to take a swim in the pool, but I can't find a suitable spot to change clothes.

If I dive into the pool, I drown.

I am trapped on the Love Tub, have found the lifeboat, but can not find a way to deploy it.

“Look and gaze at the night,” I take a seat next to the piano and at the console that we keep in the back porch. “Look everything you see there.
 Look at the candle, then look at the light.” You look a little.
 “Look at the watch.” “I was the first to watch.”
 You sit down, a few minutes to get started, and I am sitting in the back of the house, in the same.

The lifeboats keep leaving without me! The PA announcement says I'm too late.

How can we make the budget easier to understand? We can't. But we can make you know the budget better. We can do it in the ways we've chosen the few dollars.

I have been to the bridge, but the captain has this nasty habit of dying, resulting in a Love Tub disaster.

[illegible]

There are several ways the horny Mrs. Bimbo will attack...

Don't get too close to her when she's on the bed!

Don't mess with her stuff — when she's watching. Don't wait for her to leave. She won't as long as you remain in the room with her. But remember: she left the door between your staterooms unlocked, so feel free check out her room when she's not around.

Don't let her catch you napping in your room. If you peeked inside her closet, you know she's got plans for you! She's just waiting for you to go beddy-bye!

Don't return to your cabin after dark, as you will always be sleepy, lie down and... (see previous Momma rule, above).

Save your game while you are in your room, then enter Momma's room. If she catches you, restore your game, because you're dead meat!

Momma won't catch you if you enter her room while wearing your swimsuit.

Move quickly on the boat to accomplish what you must. Momma will always come once night has fallen, and from then on you cannot return to your room without dying from severe Momma flattening! You may need to restore an earlier game and play the entire ship area more efficiently.

Do the things you need to do in your cabin first. If you never return, you won't get caught.

There is. Have you tried swimming in it?

Of course, you must wear your swimming suit first.

You're modest, Larry! Find your stateroom and change there.

Remember what the purser told you before you boarded the ship: your room is all the way to the bottom rear of the Love Tub.

You can't just float there.

If you do not "swim" after you jump in, you will drown.

Saxophone reeds under your fingernails, eh?

Simple: just don't order anything at the bar. It is just there for atmosphere. Ignore it.

Have you gone to the bridge? There's something on the panel behind the Captain that will help you.

Look carefully. Examine everything you see there.

"Look at the console" then "look at the lights." You'll find a switch.

"Look at the switch." "Throw the lifeboat switch."

You have only a few minutes to get aboard the lifeboat before the boats are lowered to the water.

You must make the lifeboat switch your final action aboard the ship.

After you "throw the lifeboat switch," go directly to the lifeboat area.

"Jump into the lifeboat."

Be extremely careful where you walk.

It is possible to walk forward just enough to reach the lifeboat control panel without attracting the attention of the KGB agent lying in wait outside the bridge.

I cut down the lifeboat with the knife, but where can I find a paddle?

There's no paddle in the lifeboat.
You're stuck with the knife.

AT THE TROPICAL RESORT

After wandering forever through a jungle I found, I finally emerged into a "lovely restaurant." Is there anything I can do here?

There's no food in the lifeboat.
You're stuck with the knife.
No food in sight.
You're stuck with the knife.

This is an example of a fake question.
And this is an example of a fake hint.
Stop reading these.
You're really a glutton for punishment.

It's not. But there is some food available back in Los Angeles.
It's in Swab's Drugstore.
"Look at the shelves" from different places in the drugstore until you find it. Larry doesn't have x-ray vision and cannot see around corners!
It is behind the bank of shelves to the left. You must be near it to be able to see it.
Unfortunately, you will have to restore back to Los Angeles to do this.

Did you go swimming after you applied it?
Perhaps it just wore off.
Regardless, you must apply the sunscreen before you get to the lifeboat scene.
Do it while the lifeboat is drifting away from the Love Tub, but before you see the closeup of Larry's face.

Find a place aboard the Love Tub that looks familiar.
The ship's barber will sell you something to shield your brain pan from those wacky tanning rays.
Wear the wig after you've left the Love Tub.
Do it while the lifeboat is drifting away from the Love Tub, but before you see the closeup of Larry's face.

You can't put it on while still on the Love Tub (it's too embarrassing).
Your window of opportunity begins when your lifeboat clears the side of the Love Tub and lasts until you drift off screen.

You must bring along something to drink.
Remember the Quiki-Mart store in Los Angeles? Yep. That's where it is.
"Look at the soda machine" near the front of the store. "Buy a Grotesque Gulp." That will give you enough soda to last a 10-day ocean journey.
Unfortunately, you will have to restore back to Los Angeles to do this.

Brought along a little spinach dip, eh?
You should know better than to leave mayonnaise out in the sun for five days!
Get rid of it.
Do it while the lifeboat is drifting away from the Love Tub, but before you see the closeup of Larry's face.

In your stateroom, beneath the porthole, is a basket of fruit, a thoughtful gift from Momma Bimbo.
Or, if you can obtain it, Momma has something that will earn more points.
It is in the drawer of the nightstand in her stateroom.

You could talk to the maitre 'd, sit down, and wait for a table.
That's the only way you will get inside.

I am at my table in the restaurant, but every time I eat the food I die. Is there something here that I'm missing?

[illegible]

THE FIRM DOES NOT HAVE ANY SIGNIFICANT EMPLOYMENT

Marla seems like such a nice maid. How do I get her to give me the magic flying dust?

Always gentle,
and slow,
say what
there is a strong intention. What are you reading from prayer?

Is there any way to get quickly through this jungle scene?

1995年12月15日，在《人民日报》第1版刊登了《中共中央、国务院关于加强技术创新，发展高科技，实现产业化的决定》。该决定指出：“技术创新是民族振兴的灵魂，是国家兴旺发达的不竭动力。要把技术创新摆在经济和社会发展的首要位置，使我国高新技术产业在21世纪率先实现产业化，成为我国国民经济的主导产业。要采取有力措施，鼓励企业技术创新，支持企业技术创新，引导企业技术创新，使企业真正成为技术创新的主体。要大力推动产学研结合，促进科技成果转化。要完善技术创新的政策体系，营造技术创新的良好环境。要切实加强技术创新的组织和领导，形成全社会重视技术创新、支持技术创新的良好氛围。”

本行自 2015 年 1 月 1 日起，按照《企业会计准则第 16 号——政府补助》的相关规定，将符合政府补助定义且同时满足以下条件的政府补助，作为与收益相关的政府补助进行会计处理：

[illegible]

Yes.

And it is at the hors d'ouerves table.

There is a knife next to the cheese plate.

Take it. You will need it later when you are just hanging around.

You must fool them.

Disguise yourself so they will not recognize you.

Read their messages carefully. They are telling you exactly how to proceed.

You need both a top and a bottom to your bikini. If you have one and not the other you can not proceed.

A bikini bottom will appear at the nude beach after the resort barber bleaches your hair.

It's on the rock where Dr. Nonookae's henchette was sunbathing.

Look for the top at the bottom.

You must take a dive to find it.

While you're swimming in the ship's swimming pool, "dive" for a little sunken treasure.

Swim out to the center of the pool, "dive" underwater, swim straight down and you will find a bikini top stuck in the pool drain. "Take" it. Quickly swim to the surface again, or you will run out of air.

This is similar to the Love Tub swimsuit problem. Remember you are a modest little lounge lizard.

Change in that empty guest room.

Find a private spot.

Walk forward until you are near the picture window on the far wall. Then walk to the right until you are completely hidden. Change clothes there.

No, but you do need to stick out a bit.

Aren't you carrying something that could be used to fill out your character?

You have something resembling tissue. There is also something in the guest room's bathroom. Either of them will work.

This is one of the places where you must use "THE" wherever you'd use it in a real sentence.

Return to the guest room's dressing area and "put the soap in the bikini top."

Or, you can "put the money in the bikini top."

You won't either if you will just visit your friend the barber again.

He has the ability to clear up your problem once again.

Wrong game.

Bad hint.

Say what?

This is a phony question. Why are you reading these answers?

Yes. As soon as you visit the resort barber, the scene shortens to only three entrances.

Actually, every time you visit, it shortens by one "schtick," but it still takes a long time.

Just between us, this was my way of giving you a chance to take a break from the game, while letting the game continue. Notice that, just as you are about to leave this scene, a message pops up telling you what you've found. This is so you can take a break, leave the room, then return later to find out where you've arrived.

Perhaps the airport guards find you exciting.

Regardless, you will have to change back to your leisure suit.

No, you can't change here in full view of the guards. Your modesty prevents you. Where have you recently been completely out of sight?

At the end of the cliff scene, you pause to catch your breath. "Change into the leisure suit" at that time. But hurry, your break doesn't last long.

Have you ever actually been approached in an airport?

Do you know what those people sometimes offer you?

If you offered one to them, you might throw them off balance.

Where were you in the sixties? These are flower children KGB kids. Turn the tables on them and offer them a flower.

Remember how dense the landscaping was back at the resort?
Remember how you kept getting lost?

Evidently, that sequence lulled you to inactivity.

If you "look," it mentions beautiful landscaping and flowers.

If you "look at the flowers," you see something interesting.

Unfortunately, you will have to restore back to the jungle to do this.

You must get to the front of the line at the ticket counter.

This is a personal tribute to all those lines I have waited on that never moved, while all around me people zip right through.

Never mind which line, the answer here is to not do the obvious.

Walk east past that customs agent and snoop around the rest of the airport.

You will find some things of interest. Let none of them pass you by. Take everything as it comes.

Check out the luggage on the conveyor belt. You will never know what people might try to ship from here.

"Take the bag from the conveyor belt" until you find a suitcase with "that special something!"

By the way, that's a blue PATE special, not blue PLATE. Just another dig at poor Larry's lack of hair style.

Since you can't eat it or take it, what else could you do with it?

Search the gravy and extract the cause of your trouble.

"Take the bobby pin from the gravy."

Play more efficiently. Avoid Faster speeds as time also speeds up.

Do your shopping first, before you take the suitcase. You will keep your possessions through the explosion and will not have to stop on your way to the gate.

You can't get past the carts, but you can distract the bore. What do people do in planes to kill time?

No, not "stewardess fondling!"

No, not "bore your neighbor!" (Ken's already doing that!)

Give him something distracting, something that will hold his attention while you slip away.

Something to read.

Where can a person find something interesting to read?

On the way to reading about it.

You have to look a little to find the things you want to read about. But it's not that hard, and sure, at every time you can look at the most common.

Look at the most common, you know?

Don't know you know you know it's the best!

I got away from my seat on the plane, escaped the treacherous carts and can now roam the airplane at will. Unfortunately, when the plane lands I get caught by the KGB.

Perhaps you should not be there when it lands.

Did you ask them to make sure you were? It should stop you in a minute to make sure you're in the right.

So you're not a KGB. Or are you? You're not a KGB.

It's not the only thing you know. There is a machine that can make you a KGB.

I'd love to use my flight insurance, Monte, but I can't find door number three!

The door is not in the same room.

I don't know where it is, but I know it's not. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

The emergency exit is not in the same room as the door of the KGB. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

I have found the emergency exit, but it is locked with a padlock. Where is the key?

I have a key, I have a key, I have a key.

But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

So you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

I can make the emergency exit shiny clean, but I blow everything up — including me!

Did you make the emergency exit shiny clean?

Yes, I made it shiny clean, but I blew it up.

You can't make it shiny clean.

I have entered the restroom at the back of the airplane, but can't defuse the bomb without blowing up the plane.

Why are you in the restroom? You're not a KGB.

But I can't defuse the bomb without blowing up the plane.

So you can't defuse the bomb without blowing up the plane. So you can't defuse the bomb without blowing up the plane.

Does this game get more difficult as it progresses, or am I getting more dense?

It's not getting more difficult.

Yes, it's getting more difficult. You're not a KGB.

I know you know it's not a KGB. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

ON NONTONYT ISLAND

Here I hang, twisting slowly in the wind! How do you get down from a tree?

You don't. You just hang from a tree.

But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

You can't see it, and you can't see it, and you can't see it. But you can see it, and you can see it, and you can see it.

It's not a KGB. It's not a KGB. It's not a KGB.

Yes, it's a KGB. It's a KGB. It's a KGB.

Did you try the waiting room?

You were in such a hurry to board the airplane, you forgot to be a good adventurer! Better return there, and "look at" everything you see.

"Look at the ticket counter."

"Take a religious pamphlet from the desk."

Do it before you show your ticket to the agent.

Perhaps you should not be there when it lands.

Did you buy flight insurance before your trip? It should clue you in as to how to avoid the end of the flight.

You've got to "D. B. Cooper" your way out of this one!

If you did not buy insurance, there is a machine near the airport snack bar.

The front exit is securely fastened.

There are three doors at the rear of the aircraft. The two you can see are restrooms, another is not.

The emergency escape exit is in the rear wall of the rear of the aircraft. You can't see it unless you are close enough.

If there's a key, I don't know where it is!

You will just have to pick your own way out of this problem.

Did you notice what did not agree with you in the "Blue Pate Special?"

Ladies often use them for purposes other than their original intent.

Did you taste the "Blue Pate Special" at the airport snack bar?

Don't "choke" up, just remove the offending ingredient.

You will find it useful here.

Why are you reading this hint book? You must be playing

Police Quest II! Go buy Jim Wall's hint book!

It's impossible for you to enter this restroom. Those other guys are always too fast.

You're getting more dense.

Nah! Just kidding. You're right; it does get harder.

I suckered you in with a super-easy, fun-filled Los Angeles, then turned on the heat. By the time you realized it was a tough game, you were hooked!

You don't. You get down from a duck!

(drum fill) Sorry.

You must cut your way to freedom. Good adventurers always pack a knife.

It's in the restaurant, back at the resort.

Yep, it's "Restore" time again!

I must be missing something, as I seem to have lost most of my inventory when I landed in the jungle. Was there a more gentle method of leaving the parachute?

It may be even better, as I know you know how to sail. There can be that one chance when the waves are small and the wind is gentle. The boat will hold, and I can go to work!

My friends here, the rainforest, and more things to keep your memory's supercomputer engaged could keep the minutes of my life. Or, if possible, you can go to the computer that I can be used just as you wish.

My friends from the Bush party keep sweeping me off my feet. I love being romanced, but not like this. What's a poor Larry to do?

Shh, or they may catch you and make you look better.

It is not only the jungle that is so much. There is a lot more to the bush, including the river. Can I find a way to make it a little more like you?

I am tired of playing Jonah and the Python. Just my luck: one snake in the entire jungle and he relishes the taste of polyester!

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

What a surprise to see you here.

But we are not alone in the jungle, are we?

There was a lot of rain, your landing was under the parachute. I wish it was a day.

And the sky is not open for a while, as it is the most beautiful day.

And the snake, which is the most beautiful of all, but before you are of course up, but the snake is the most beautiful of all.

I HATE quicksand!

When the weather is so good, it is hard to guide you.

It is not only the jungle that is so much. There is a lot more to the bush, including the river.

And the snake, which is the most beautiful of all, but before you are of course up, but the snake is the most beautiful of all.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

There is a chance when the waves are small and the wind is gentle. The boat will hold, and I can go to work!

My friends here, the rainforest, and more things to keep your memory's supercomputer engaged could keep the minutes of my life. Or, if possible, you can go to the computer that I can be used just as you wish.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

Those piranha really tickle my fancy.

It is not only the jungle that is so much.

There is a lot more to the bush, including the river.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

But we are not alone in the jungle, are we?

There was a lot of rain, your landing was under the parachute. I wish it was a day.

I "Tarzan" my way to the first vine, but I have trouble "keeping it up!"

It is not only the jungle that is so much. There is a lot more to the bush, including the river. And the lady, the most lovely of all.

And the snake, which is the most beautiful of all, but before you are of course up, but the snake is the most beautiful of all.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

How do I get across that chasm after meeting the lady of my dreams? I keep taking a dive.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

And the snake, which is the most beautiful of all, but before you are of course up, but the snake is the most beautiful of all.

And the lady, the most lovely of all.

If you've ever broken your onklunk, you know how painful that can be! That line doesn't make any sense here, but it was left over from the game and I didn't want it to go to waste!

No, there's not. But, remember: you were trying to keep your onklunk's superconductor research secrets from the clutches of the evil Dr. Nonooke, and you've accomplished that. You landed with all you could.

Stay as radical as you can until you're well past Bush.

Go to the lower left corner of the scene, just before you brush the bush containing the Killer Bees. Then, genuflect to Bush.

"Crawl under the bush."

Use the Teddy Roosevelt approach.

Walk softly and carry a big stick.

You are not approaching this puzzle "prop-erly."

There was a stick near your landing spot under the parachute. Grab it and use it here.

Use the stick to prop open the snake's mouth so he cannot swallow you.

After the snake begins his descent from the tree, but before you are all wrapped up, "put the stick into the snake's mouth."

Watch the monkey. He is there to guide you.

You cannot go around the swamp. You must walk across the middle.

No, the vines will not help you. At least, not here!

Look carefully at the ground here.

There is a definite pattern in the surface of the swamp. The monkey follows it out of the scene. You should follow it, too.

There's no trick answer here, you must just walk carefully. I'd recommend saving your game every few steps.

If you have a mouse, use it. It makes this scene easier. If not, slow down the game using the "slower" key.

Your fancy what?

Never touch the piranha-infested water.

Think high thoughts.

"Tarzan" your way across.

Walk as far east as possible without touching water. "Swing on the vines."

This seems tricky at first, but it is quite easy once you get the hang of it. As soon as you see Larry on the first vine, "swing on the next vine." Likewise, "swing on the next vine" as soon as you see him transferred to vine number two.

You didn't forget to "release the vine," did you?

Do not try to cross the stream using all three vines in just one command. It just will not work!

You've already solved this puzzle and don't realize it.

And you thought your swinging days were over back there at the river! Of course, here you will have to "throw the vine" until it hooks on that limb across the chasm.

What vine? You did take a souvenir from the piranha river, didn't you? As soon as you dismounted from the vines, "look at the vines" says one of the vines looks solid, but is attached by only a thread. Need I say more?

What's with this native guy chopping wood? Will he show me how to cross that chasm? May I borrow his axe? Will he ever slow down enough to stop?

He won't stop until he's finished his job.
He won't stop until he's
finished his job.
He won't stop until he's finished his job.

I am at the base of a gigantic glacier (and, by the way, what is a glacier doing on a tropical island, anyway?), trying to climb an ice ramp. I thought this might be like the whale's tongue in King's Quest IV, but I'm unable to find a path.

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

I am at the top of the crater near the elevator and cannot seem to get anything done. I just wanna ease on down the ol' Otis!

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

I have something that would make a suitable bomb, but I have nothing with which to light it.

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

Every time I light the hair rejuvenator, it explodes in my face.

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

I have three items that should make an excellent explosive device. I try to build it and the game responds "Not here!" Ok, where?

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

My bomb keeps falling into the crevice, in spite of the fact that I don't want it to. I'm trying to build it, not drop it! What's going on here?

There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.
There's a small cavernous area.

He won't help you at all.
Neither will his axe.
He's just a big, fat, red herring.
No matter how long you wait, he'll just keep on chopping—slower and slower.

This is a non-Californian puzzle.
Snow-country people should solve this easily.
Look carefully around the native village. What do people carry in their car trunks in the winter to help them get traction?
"Take the ashes from the campfire." Or, grab some sand from the beach.
Then, "spread the ashes on the glacier."

You can't. It's locked from inside.
You've got to be a little explosive here.
Build a bomb.
But don't bomb the elevator door. That won't do you any good.
Drop your bomb into that large crevice at the center rear of the scene.

Oh, oh! You're not going to like this answer!
Matches are available in this game. You must have missed them.
Where could you find complimentary matchbooks?
How about a hotel room?
Unfortunately, you will have to restore back to the resort to do this.

Don't light it.
You need a fuse.
You missed something on the airplane. Wouldn't it just make you SICK to restore all the way back there?
While in your seat, "look" around the airplane.
"Take the airsick bag" from the seatback pocket and use it for a fuse.

As you enter the crater, walk straight forward, pass the elevator, and stand beside the large crevice.
Stand very near the edge, but be careful not fall in!

If you are having trouble getting the game to accept your instructions, be sure to use "the" in your instructions where applicable.
"Put _____ in _____" will not work. "Put THE _____ in THE _____" will.
"Put the airsick bag in the rejuvenator."
"Light the airsick bag with the matches."
"Drop the bottle into the crevice."

"Look at the jogger in the park" by the Los Angeles airport hotel.

"Look at the sidewalk" in front of Molto Lira on Rodeo Drive.

"Look through the knothole in the fence" in the alley near the Quiki-Mart store in Los Angeles.

Watch for the eyeball that occasionally appears at that knothole. (It is entirely random, and doesn't happen often.)

Relieve yourself in that same alley. You must find exactly the right spot. (Walk as close as you can get to the far side of the trash bin, then go east until you touch the Quiki-Mart.)

"Buy a Grotesque Gulp" in the Quiki-Mart when you have no money. Attempt to leave the store.

Watch the clerk in Swab's Drugstore pick his nose.

"Look at the clerk" in all the stores in Los Angeles.

"Look at the Mother" when she's sitting on the bed in her stateroom on the Love Tub.

Pollute the Love Tub's swimming pool while diving to the bottom. (There's an "Oops" that appears just as you finish.)

Watch the couple in the Love Tub's revolving bar seated near the spinach dip. (He tries something, but she pushes his hand away.)

Get the maid at the tropical resort guest room to be more "ac-comodating." (Rudeness works quite well in this situation.)

Gather lots of extra points at the perilous cliffs following the KGB beach.

"Look at the barber" in the airport barber shop.

"Light a match" while carrying the hair rejuvenator.

Watch the waitress in the Aeroporto snack bar adjust her underwear.

"Look at the huts" in the native village.

Write your name in the glacier. (Enter the opening at the lower left corner of the screen until you are completely hidden. Walk north as far as possible, then head east. As you walk out, you will automatically stop and do your duty.) Too bad Larry only has enough ammo for the first three letters.

"For Your Thighs Only"

Yep. Gumbo, Missouri. (No, I'm not kidding! You think that's funny?)

They represent the beta testers who helped me debug the game.

Barbara Baser, David Blair, Guruka Singh Khalsa, and Neil Rubenking (whose name was changed to "A. P. Wire" to protect what's left of his reputation!).

The game's head graphics artist, Bill "Scurvy Dog" Skirvin, of course.

My wife and I are both alto saxophone players. We have lots of reeds around the house.

Because, Charlie "Yardbird" Parker was bebop's greatest alto saxophonist and I'm a big fan. Rent the video of Clint Eastwood's movie "Bird" to find out more.

It's in the game because while I was designing this game, we hosted a party. Someone brought spinach dip. As it sat out all evening, it spoiled! For the following week, everyone who ate it was sick. So, you had to figure out that silly puzzle just because I made all my friends at Sierra sick!

Why is there a shark in the jungle?

Harry is a shark. I spent years skinning sharks. I didn't want to break tradition, although I thought I was the only one to break it in the ocean. Hence, a shark goes in a "jungle shark" hat.

What's the name of the song that drummer plays when Larry proves he's worthy of Kalalau's hand in marriage?

Why do the players look like "Olympic Lame a Man" that he you can't of course. (Villager's guess)

Whose idea was it to put a glacier in a jungle that would be melted by ashes?

Robert E. Holman. You may think that for me!

WALK THROUGH

WARNING: Do not read this section unless you have finished the game. It contains specific information that will spoil the game for you!

This is the shortest path through the game that will give you all 500 points. North is always assumed to be towards the top of your screen, south down, east to the right and west to the left. Words within quotation marks are to be typed into the computer exactly as shown. All ready? Here we go:

AROUND LOS ANGELES

Begin by following the Walk Thru in the "Tips for Beginning Adults" where I explain in your documentation. We'll start again here after you've completed that.

Don't "OK" Leave the Green Room and walk west until you reach the CD screen. Use up the stairs and through the glass doors. Walk to the restaurant's desk. "Show the lottery ticket to the lady." "5498." Write down the six numbers she gives you. Then enter 12345 six numbers when she asks for "OUR six numbers." (Do not enter the numbers you gave the lottery machine in the Green Room. You want to win the lottery, remember.)

Enter the Green Room. Walk to the north wall. Sit down on the green couch's bench. Wait 30 seconds for The Dating Game's host's Assistant Producer to enter. "Stand up." Follow him into the studio. Watch the show. Enter your first best line when asked. (Don't take it personally. Barbra said whatever you want.) Take the prize coin token belonging the show. "Sit down" on the bench again. Wait for the Lucky Life Lottery's Assistant Producer to enter. "Stand." Follow her into the studio. Win again.

Nearly all of Sierra's latest games have a shark. I didn't want to break tradition, although I thought it too trite to put my shark in the ocean. Hence, a KGB agent in a "land shark" hat!

Why, it's that classic rock tune, "Compute Like a Man (Fast as you Can!)" of course. (Villagers groan.)

Robert E. Heitman. You may thank him for me!

Begin by following the Walk Thru in the "Tips for Beginning Adventurers" section of your documentation. We'll start again here after you've completed that.

Done? Ok. Leave the Quiki-Mart and walk west until you reach KROD studios. Go up the stairs and through the glass doors. Walk to the receptionist's desk. "Show the lottery ticket to the receptionist." Write down the six numbers she gives you, then enter THOSE six numbers when she asks for YOUR six numbers. (Do not enter the numbers you gave the lottery machine in the Quiki-Mart. You want to win the lottery, remember!)

Enter the Green Room. Walk to the north wall. "Sit down on the green room's bench." Wait 30 seconds for The Dating Connection's Assistant Producer to enter. "Stand up." Follow him into the studio. Watch the show. Enter your two best lines when asked. (Don't take it personally, Barbara hates whatever you type!) Take the cruise ship ticket following the show. "Sit down" on the bench again. Wait for the Lucky Life Lottery's Assistant Producer to enter. "Stand." Follow her into the studio. Win again.

Leave the studio. Leave the lobby. Walk down the stairs. Go west until you see the Hollywood Inn. Walk south to the 101 Freeway and walk along its border to the north end. "Leave the bus when you leave the road." Walk to the south side of the boulevard. "I'm the best woman for the job." Leave.

Head east to Swain's Drugstore. Walk to the east side of the west aisle. Look in the shelves until you see the dispenser. Take the cardboard box the shelf. Walk to the counter. Tap the clerk for the dispenser. Leave.

Walk down to the Club Shack. Stand in front of the 3000 rooming and take a compass reading from the meridian. Walk to the corner where the 2000 and 3000 stand close by the pool. Leave. Go west to the 2000 then south past the 10000 Club to downtown. Walk west to the hotel. Walk onto the sidewalk that flows past. A together will appear in the park. A park is the center in the park.

from what is described. But could it have played a more direct role, such as Richard's case and the others in the books, a role that was more central and active? I don't Walk west past Unsworth's Studio to Eve's Island. Stand next to the trash can and watch for the "Eve's cat." Walk the opposite way the same for the same. It takes no time. There are no prizes here, the garbage. Walk north past Unsworth to the Elder's Technology Shop. It is now open. Walk through the west door. Talk to the robot, stop clock. Eventually, you will wind up downtown again. Walk south to Night Hawks. This area is the crime zone zone. Walk west the way and follow the chain of objects in the map.

ON THE LOVE TUB

When you arrive on the jinko, you are the last change is the lower right corner of the whole outlay map. Pick what it enters your classroom. Walk forward to the middle. Take the basket of fruit. Look at the side of the full way. (Continue...)

EXILE: Martina Hingis's statement: "Even the fastest are just waiting for me to return to you somehow." Change all of my words out. Hingis is Martina's mom. She will be away. Then to the internet of Hingis Martina's bed. I put the negative image. "Even the slowest of them are my friends." Dream in your room.

"Kick the door open in my face." Walk out the back door to the street highway. Walk west, down the street, walk west along the street, walk east in the swimming pool. Walk to the virgin chapel to sing. Lie down on the chair lounge. Remove the hair and eyebrows. When the hair is removed, "Interact." Walk into the pool.
 Sit and begin to stretch around. Swim. Swim to the center of the pool. Dive. Swim to the bottom of swimming pool. Get the boots on. Crawl back up to the surface. Swim to the side and "Walk out of the swimming pool."

"High for a 100-pounder on my belly" again after swimming. "Hug me to wake me." "Energy into my brain, please." "Leave your room. Don't mess with the man, walk past him the hard way. Walk past as far as possible. Come do what I want to do." "Sit down in the back of your car. Stay for the night. Stay for the night. Stay for the night. Stay for the night."

Walk east, onto the stairs at the end of the swimming pool. Walk to the west end of the bar and take the sprig out from the bar. Leave the bar, walk down the stairs, go west, climb the stairs in the house. Enter the room.

Leave the studio. Leave the lobby. Walk down the stairs. Go east until you see the Hollywood hills. Walk south to Molto Lira. Enter and walk around the counter to the north wall. "Take the blue bikini job from the rack." Walk to the south side of the counter. "Pay the Italian woman for the swimsuit." Leave.

Head east to Swab's Drugstore. Walk to the east side of the west aisle. "Look at the shelves" until you see the sunscreen. "Take the sunscreen from the shelf." Walk to the counter. "Pay the clerk for the sunscreen." Leave.

Walk north to the Quiki-Mart. Stand in front of the soda machine, and "get a Grotesque Gulp from the machine." Walk to the counter and "pay the cute, blond clerk for the soda." Leave. Go west to the alley, then south past the Brown Derby to downtown. Walk west to the hotel. Wait until the airplane has flown past. A jogger will appear in the park. "Look at the jogger in the park."

Walk east to downtown, then south to Hairy Reams' Barber Shop. Walk near the barber's chair and "sit down in the barber's chair." Get your macrobiotic hair styling. Leave.

Walk west past Unreversal Studios to Eve's house. Stand near the trash cans and "search through Eve's can." Press the spacebar to say the same phrase again. (It takes two tries.) "Take my passport from the garbage." Walk north past Disneyland to the Ethno-Musicology Shoppe. It is now open. Enter through the west door. "Talk to the music store clerk." Eventually, you will wind up downtown again. Walk south to Hairy Reams' then east to the cruise ship dock. Walk near the man and "show the cruise ship ticket to the man."

When you arrive on the ship, you are the tiny shape in the lower right corner of the ship's cutaway map. Walk east to enter your stateroom. Walk forward to the porthole. "Take the basket of fruit." Walk to the door on the east wall. "Open the door."

Enter Mamma Bimbo's stateroom. When she finishes her plot exposition speech, return to your stateroom. "Change out of my leisure suit." Return to Mamma's room. She will be away. Walk to the nightstand beside Momma's bed. "Open the nightstand drawer." "Take the sewing kit from the nightstand." Return to your room.

"Apply the sunscreen to my body." Walk out the south door to the ship's hallway. Walk west, climb the stairs, walk west, climb the stairs, walk east to the swimming pool. Walk to the empty chaise lounge. "Lie down on the chaise lounge." Ignore the henchette that approaches you. When she leaves, "stand up." Walk into the pool. After you begin to thrash around, "swim." Move to the center of the pool. "Dive." Swim to the bottom of swimming pool. "Get the bikini top." Quickly swim back to the surface. Swim to the side and "climb out of the swimming pool."

"Rub the sunscreen on my body" again after swimming. Return to your room. "Change into my leisure suit." Leave your room. Walk west, climb the stairs, walk west, climb the stairs, walk west as far as possible. Enter the ship's barber shop. "Sit down in the barber's chair." Buy the televangelist wig from the barber. Leave.

Walk east, climb the stairs all the way to the revolving bar. Walk to the west end of the bar and "take the spinach dip from the bar." Leave the bar, walk down the stairs, go west, climb the stairs to the bridge. Enter the bridge.

Other, more subtle, factors are also at work. For example, the "mimicry" effect—whereby people tend to follow the lead of others—may play a role in the success of the campaign. The campaign's success is also due to the support of the local business community, which has been instrumental in the campaign's success.

AT THE TROPICAL RESORT

Arrive at the wooden cabin. Pick up the Power you are near the large window in the center of the cabin which is covered by some of the parts of the giant tree. Pick the Power under the picture. You are now Power active at a restaurant. Talk to the waiter. He'll show you the map. Wait while everyone has more drinks than you're used to. After you are drunk to yourself, don't think to sit down. Walk to the back of the restaurant in the southwest corner of the room and pick up the cheese knife from the table. Eat it.

After wandering through the landscape once again, you will arrive at an empty guest room. Walk to the south nightstand. Take the bookies from the nightstand. Walk to the bathroom sink. Take the soap from the bathroom sink. Join the road. Leave.

Wander through the landscape maze again. You will arrive at a barber shop. "Sit down in the barber's chair." Becoming a Barber.

Now the landscape map becomes much simpler. When you arrive at the beach, walk west to the turtle beach. Take the piken oomien from the rock. Return to the landscape map. This will appear if the restaurant is open and leave.

While I've passed the law conversion to the Australian profession, I haven't been to the court yet. I've started my practice in the criminal justice system, and the law firm that I've joined has been very good. It's been a very good experience for me.

"Leave the door wide open!" I'd call out a half hour later, looking out from the porch. "There is some sort of machine on the east wall, about half the width of machines. They might be used to turn the machine." Return to the Sago and take the door. Walk near the doorway, not. Watch the 2nd screen and the suitcase completely. 2 hours (2nd door). (A door number too.) Take the suitcase from the doorway, too. 2nd door, then the door of the hotel, please.

WAS is the only remaining agent at the counter. "Purchase an entire loaf from the clerk," inform the research to the persons listed. Return to the group bar and take the "brochure" at the right. Walk straight forward to the left end of the counter. Take the Walk north until you are standing near the large switch. "Throw the lifeboat switch." Leave. Climb down the stairs, go east, climb the stairs to the lifeboat deck. Walk near the chained opening in the railing. "Jump into the lifeboat."

After the lifeboats are lowered into the ocean, yours will drift away from the "Love Tub." Before you leave this scene, "wear the wig," "throw the spinach dip overboard," and "apply the sunscreen to my body." Drift at sea for 10 days.

Arrive at the tropical resort. Head south. When you are near the large flower in the center of the scene (directly beneath the parrot in the palm tree), "pick the flower under the parrot." You will soon (?) arrive at a restaurant. "Talk to the maitre 'd.'" "Sit down in the chair." Wait while everyone with more status than you is seated. After you are shown to your seat, don't bother to sit down. Walk to the hors d'ouevres table in the southwest corner of the room and "pick up the cheese knife from the table." Leave.

After wandering through the landscape maze again, you will arrive at an empty guest room. Walk to the south nightstand. "Take the matches from the nightstand." Walk to the bathroom sink. "Take the soap from the bathroom sink." Ignore the maid. Leave.

Wander through the landscape maze again. You will arrive at a barber shop. "Sit down in the barber's chair." Become a blonde. Leave.

Now the landscape maze becomes much shorter. When you arrive at the beach, walk west to the nude beach. "Take the bikini bottom from the rock." Return to the landscape maze. You will appear at the restaurant. Ignore it and leave.

Landscape your way to the guest room. Walk north to the window. Walk east until you are completely hidden behind the bathroom wall. "Wear the bikini top and bikini bottom." "Put the soap in the bikini top." Leave.

Next stop, barber shop. "Sit." Leave after your body waxing. Return to beach. Walk east. Pass the KGB agents. Negotiate the sheer cliffs. When you stop to rest, "change into my leisure suit."

Outside the airport, walk near the KGBishnas and "hand the flower to the men." Enter the airport, walk west to the barber shop. "Look at the woman barber." "Sit in the barber's chair."

Walk east past the ticket counter to the Customs Inspection station. Walk to the man at the counter and "give my passport to the customs agent." Walk to the low wall on the right; a gate will open. Walk past the baggage conveyors to the snack bar.

"Order the blue plate special." Do not eat it, but "take the bobby pin from the gravy." Walk to the vending machines on the east wall. Stand near the northern machine. "Buy flight insurance from the machine." Return to the baggage handling area. Walk near the conveyor belt. Watch the X-ray screen until the suitcase containing a bomb goes past. (It's bag number ten.) "Take the suitcase from the conveyor belt." It will clear away the line at the ticket counter.

Walk to the sole remaining agent at the counter. "Purchase an airline ticket from the clerk." "Show my passport to the customs agent." Return to the snack bar and take the "slidewalk" on the right. Walk straight forward to the left end of the counter. "Take the religious pamphlet from the desk." "Show the airline ticket to the ticket agent." Board the airplane.

Once you are airborne and the bore beside you has finished his first speech, "give the religious pamphlet to the bore." Then "take the airsick bag from the seatback." "Stand up." Walk east to the rear compartment. "Wear the parachute." Walk south until you are nearly hidden. "Use the bobby pin to pick the padlock." "Move the large red handle." "Open the emergency exit door." While the small airplane is at the top of the picture, "pull the ripcord." Drift to the Nontoonyt Island. Land in a tree.

While hanging from parachute, "cut the parachute harness with the knife." Fall. Walk northeast. "Pick up the stout stick from the ground." Walk south as far as possible, then west as far as possible. "Crawl under the killer bee bush." Walk south.

Walk southeast until you pass between the large rocks in the center of the picture. As the snake notices you, "insert the stick into the snake's mouth." After the snake crawls away, walk east.

Look carefully at this scene. There is a faint pattern in the soil that shows you the areas upon which to walk. It goes from where you stand, to a large rock, south slightly, east to the monkey's starting rock, then east to the edge of the scene. Walk across the swamp, saving your game repeatedly (just in case you are wrong).

Walk near the river, stopping beside the large gray rock on the northwest shore. "Swing on the vine." As soon as you see Larry on the first vine, "swing on the next vine." Ditto for vine three. As soon as you see Larry on vine three, "release the vine" and drop to safety. "Pull the vine from the tree branch." Walk northeast to the beach.

Meet the girl of your dreams. Fall in love. Propose marriage. Talk with her father. Prove you're a man. (Learn she's a virgin.) When Chief Keneewauwau leaves, return to the village and "take the ashes from the campfire." Walk back to the beach and "take some sand from the beach." Return to the chasm. "Throw the vine across the limb" and swing across. Walk north to the glacier.

Stand near the center of the base of the glacier. Either "spread the ashes on the glacier" or "spread the sand on the glacier." Walk north to the top of the volcano.

Walk straight north past the elevator door stopping very near the crevice (east of the plume of smoke). "Put the airsick bag in the rejuvenator." "Light the airsick bag with the matches." "Throw the rejuvenator into the crevice." The elevator will be forced open. Enter the elevator. Finish off the evil Dr. Nonooke through your ineptitude. Marry the girl of your dreams. Live happily ever after! Or, keep an eye out for Leisure Suit Larry III !!

SCI

SCI, Sierra's Creative Interpreter, is an in-house, third-generation, adventure game language that includes everything necessary to produce games like King's Quest and Leisure Suit Larry. Largely through the work of Jeff Stephenson, Bob Heltman and other programmers, it allows specialists like artists, musicians, designers and high-level programmers to create every aspect of three-dimensional, animated, graphic adventure games. Picture, view, font and cursor editors; graphics card drivers; MIDI device drivers; compilers, interpreters, and literally dozens of utilities are the result of millions of dollars of software development.

HISTORY

All this is descended from Roberta Williams' revolutionary idea, and Ken Williams' innovative programming, back in 1980. Roberta wanted a game similar to the mainframe game Adventure, that would also display graphics on their Apple][home computer. Ken wrote a picture editor and interpreter entirely in Assembler, since no higher level languages except BASIC existed for the Apple then. Roberta wrote the story, and drew the pictures on one of Apple's first graphics tablets. Thus was born Mystery House and a new genre of computer games.

Roberta demanded color, so their next game, The Wizard and the Princess had the first color-filled pictures. Later, with the first King's Quest three-dimensionality, sound and animation were added in AGI, the second-generation Adventure Game Interpreter.

Always the games provided more, first... the first pictures, more pictures per disk, the first color-filled pictures, more colors, the first three-dimensional graphics, more animation, more music, the first MIDI sounds, the first Hollywood sound track, etc. etc. And still Sierra presses forward: expect the future to hold CD-ROM games, with photographic-quality pictures, real-time television animation, CD-quality music, speech, and...
